1st. "An account of some remains of Roman, and other Antiquities, in and near the County of Brecknock in South Wales. By John Strange, Esq. Read at the Society of Antiquaries, April 13 and 20, 1769." Published 1769.

2nd. "A dessertation upon Oriuna, said to be Empress or Queen of England, the supposed wife of Carausius, Monarch of Britain. Illustrated with the coin of Oriuna, and several others most remarkable of Carausius hitherto not made public." Published 1751.

3rd. "A Series of Dissertations on some elegant and very valuable Anglo-Saxon Remains; also the coins engraved on a copper-plate, with a preface wherein the question, 'Whether the Saxons coined any Gold or not?' is candidly debated with Mr. North. By Samuel Pegge, A. M." Published 1756.

4th. "An Index to the Pembrokian Coins and Medals. By Joseph Ames, Secretary to the Society of Antiquaries and F. R. S." An exceedingly rare volume of valuable numismatic information, containing over 100 pages, quarto; illustrated.

By the late Mr. Thomas Snelling. London, 1774." Large quarto pamphlet containing copper-plate engravings of over 200 Scotch coins. This is probably the most valuable work on Scotch coins ever published, and is an original copy—not a reprint.

1746. "Records of Roman History from Cnæus Pompeius to Tiberius Constantinus, as exhibited on the Roman coins collected by Francis Hobbler, formerly Secretary of the Numismatic Society of London." 2 vols., quarto, cloth, with many wood-cuts—860 pp.

Evelyn, Esq., S. R. S. London, 1697." An exceedingly rare work on Medals, alike valuable as a numismatic work and as a specimen of typography. It also contains 100 finely-executed steel engravings of medals. They are printed separately throughout, the letter-press necessitating a double printing. Original binding, full sheep.

1755. "Medailles de Grand et Moyen Bronze du Cabinet de la Reine Christina. A la Haye Chez Pierre de Hondt, MDCCXLII." Imperial—Original binding full sheep. 464 pp.; 63 full page steel plates, each containing about 40 fac-similes. A very rare and fine work.
